 - (h) keep our website secure and prevent fraud; and
 - (i) verify compliance with the terms and conditions governing the use of our website (including monitoring private messages sent through our website live chat messaging service).
- 4.3 If you submit personal information for publication on our website, we will publish and otherwise use that information in accordance with the licence you grant to us.
- 4.4 We will not, without your express consent, supply your personal information to any third party for the purpose of their or any other third party's direct marketing.
- 4.5 All our website financial transactions are handled through our payment services provider, PayPal. You can review the provider's privacy policy at [www.PayPal.co.uk]. We will share information with our payment services provider only to the extent necessary for the purposes of processing payments you make via our website, refunding such payments and dealing with complaints and queries relating to such payments and refunds.

5. Disclosing personal information

- 5.1 We may disclose your personal information to any of our employees, officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.
- 5.2 We may disclose your personal information to any member of our group of companies (this means any of our potential or future subsidiaries) insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes set out in this policy.
- 5.3 We may disclose your personal information:
- (a) to the extent that we are required to do so by law;
 - (b) in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings;
 - (c) in order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk);
 - (d) to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling; and
 - (e) to any person who we reasonably believe may apply to a court or other competent authority for disclosure of that personal information where, in our reasonable opinion, such court or authority would be reasonably likely to order disclosure of that personal information.
- 5.4 Except as provided in this policy, we will not provide your personal information to third parties.

6. International data transfers

- 6.1 Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between any of the countries in which we operate in order to enable us to use the information in accordance with this policy.
- 6.2 Information that we collect may be transferred to the following countries which do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in force in the European Economic Area: The United States of America, Russia, Japan, China and India.
